

Miss Carro's Homework Policy

General Information for all Classes

- * Students will receive half credit for homework that is not fully completed.
- * Students will receive a zero for homework that is not completed.
- * Students will receive half credit for homework that is turned in late.
- * Students will be given an ample amount of time to make up homework that they miss due to an absence.
- * If a student misses more than three homework assignments, the student's parents will be notified.

Math

- * A homework sheet corresponding to the day's lesson will be given each night. This sheet should take the student about 20-30 minutes to complete.
- * The students must show their work for the problems on a separate sheet of paper.

Reading & Language Arts

- * The students must read each night for 30 minutes. They must record their reading in a log that is to be turned in on the first of each month with a parent's signature.

Social Studies

- * The students will do a current events assignment on designated dates according to the schedule distributed by the teacher.

Miss Carro's Discipline Policy

*If a student should fail to behave properly and respectfully in class, disciplinary actions will be taken in the following order:

1. The teacher will issue up to two verbal warnings.
2. The teacher will issue a recess detention.
3. The teacher will notify the student's parents and issue an after-school detention.
4. The student will be referred to the principal.
